

Too many of our children have lost their futures.

In honor of their spirits,

In remembrance of their laughter,

In hope of educating their peers,

Let us join together for the...

WALK OF LIFE:

HONORING THOSE WHO LEFT TOO SOON

PRESENTED BY THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF HEATHER CARPENTER

- What: An opportunity for our community to honor teens and young adults who have lost their life. The event will host speakers, a three-mile walk with memorials and information from local organizations.
- Families will share stories of their child's amazing life and provide a memorial for their child along the walk route.
 - Speakers will highlight our sorrow and revive our commitment towards promoting positive life choices to local youth.
 - Organizations will present material and be available to explain how we can serve their mission of helping our community's youth.

When: Saturday, August 7, 2004 at 7:30pm

Where: Diestelhorst Bridge, Redding, California
Three-mile walk along the Sacramento River Trail
(Trail behind Elks Lodge and Senior Citizens Center)

- Who:
- Family and friends memorializing the life of their child.
 - Organizations dedicated towards educating the youth of our community about positive life choices.
 - Community members gathering together to remember the children and recharge their commitment to today's youth.
